PRESS RELEASE

Tom Carroll Named Department's Deputy Commissioner

Delaware Department of Correction Commissioner Carl Danberg announces that Tom Carroll has been named the Department's Deputy Commissioner. Carroll, whose new role became effective Monday, Sept. 3, becomes the first person to hold the title of Deputy Commissioner, a newly created position within the Office of the Commissioner.

Carroll comes to DOC Central Administration from the Delaware Correctional Center (DCC) near Smyrna, where he served as Warden since 2001. Prior to DCC, Carroll was Warden at Webb Correctional Facility and the Morris Correctional Institution.

A 27-year veteran of the DOC, Carroll began his Corrections career as a counselor in 1980. He has also held the positions of inmate classification officer and training administrator.

Carroll has two degrees from the University of Delaware - a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice (1977) and a Master of Arts degree in Sociology (1984). He has also received additional training through the National Institute of Corrections.

Carroll lives in Bear with his wife, Ginger, and three sons.
